

How we use your personal information

-- Robinson College Students' Association (RCSA)

This statement explains how the Robinson College Students Association (“we” and “our”) handles and uses data it collects about its members for processes relating to the operation and activities of the association. For the purposes of this data privacy notice, the RCSA includes and encompasses all of its recognised clubs and societies as listed in Appendix 1 of its Constitution.

When changes are made to this statement, we will publish the updated version to our website.

The controller for your personal information is the RCSA. The person responsible for data protection at the time of issue, and the person who is responsible for monitoring compliance with relevant legislation in relation to the protection of personal information, is the RCSA President.

The normal legal basis for processing your personal information is that we believe it is in our legitimate interests to do so, in order for the society to run effectively and efficiently. Where we process your personal information outside of the purposes listed in this statement, we will seek your explicit consent to do so in advance. You may ask us for further information on these matters at any time if you have specific concerns.

How your data is used by the association

We collect and process your personal information, as specified below, for a number of purposes, including:

- A. maintaining your personal details (i.e. your name, relevant College identifiers and preferred contact details), including ensuring effective communications with you;
- B. maintaining a formal record of your activities within the society;
- C. maintaining data to enable the association to undertake research into its own activities and/or to manage complaints made to us.

If you have concerns or queries about any of these purposes, please contact us.

How we share your personal data

- Personal data is not normally shared outside of the society and its members. We share some of your personal information with the College and University only where there is a specific need to, including name and contact details of Committee Members, Presidents of clubs and societies.
- The Robinson College Boat Club share the names and CRSID's of racing members as well as the names of coaching members and affiliates with the Cambridge University Combined Boat Clubs for the purpose of races..
- We use College IT facilities to store electronic copies of personal information.

We may also be subject to a legal requirement (with or without your consent) to share your personal information with the College or a government agency (such as the police or security services or other statutory authorities with investigatory powers) under special circumstances (e.g. relating to tax, crime or health and safety). Where possible, we will notify you of our intention to share such information in advance.

Your rights

You have the right: to ask us for access to, rectification or erasure of your personal information; to restrict processing (pending correction or deletion); to object to communications; and to ask for the transfer of your personal information electronically to a third party (data portability).

Some of these rights are not automatic, and we reserve the right to discuss with you why we might not comply with a request from you to exercise them.

If you have questions or concerns about your personal information, or how it used, please speak an officer of the society.

If you remain unhappy with the way your information is being handled, or with the response received from us, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office at Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, SK9 5AF (<https://ico.org.uk/>).

Last updated: 23.10.18
James Hedge - RCSA President 2017-18