Ordinary Motions

a) RCMS Concert Costs

RCSA Notes:

1. RCMS has spent more money than first thought on concerts and formals for performers as the status of the music society has increased meaning more well-known professional performers.

RCSA Believes:

1. Even though RCMS asked for an increase on the previous academic year, this was a rough figure on what was originally thought to be the concert line up for the year. After new additions and more well-known performers asking for payment – even after negotiation – RCMS should be allowed more money to fund the next term and May Week concert.

RCSA Resolves:

1. To allow RCMS to have an extra £250 to cover costs of the upcoming concerts

Proposer: Zoe Silkstone

Seconder: Sam Holmes

b) Robinson Women's Football Club Kit Refunds

RCSA Notes:

1. Robinson Women's F.C. received a budget of £350 to order a complete new kit
2. Emily Shaw did so, and spent exactly £350.
3. However, due to online ordering and guessing sizes, when some of the kit's shorts arrived, they came up very small – 9 pairs had to be sent back and 9 new ones in a bigger size ordered.

4. Due to the company's returns policies, Emily Shaw had to send back the shorts via recorded delivery, costing £11
5. The shorts also ranged in price by their size, so an outstanding amount of £13.54 was also paid for the shorts themselves by Emily Shaw
6. The total spent by Emily Shaw as a result of this was £24.54
7. There is no more money left in the Robinson Women's Football Club budget

RCSA Believes:

1. It is good for Robinson WFC to have a new kit
2. No student should be left out of pocket when buying something for the benefit of the college, according to the RCSA's constitution

RCSA Resolves:

1. To use £24.54 from the Open Meeting's budget to refund Emily Shaw the outstanding amount incurred for the cost of the new kit

Proposer: Emily Shaw

Secunder: Charlotte Kirkman
