

RCSA Policy List

Articles 18 and 19 of the RCSA Constitution state that:

18. RCSA Policy

- a. A motion regarding RCSA Policy passed by an Open Meeting shall become RCSA Policy unless it lies in breach of this Constitution or beyond the powers of the Open Meeting.
- b. RCSA Policy shall lapse after three years subject to part (c) and Article 19(b).
- c. Members may call for a Referendum to annul RCSA Policy (Article 23(b)).
- d. If RCSA Policy is no longer viable, a Committee can propose a motion of annulment (Article 11(b)(i)) to the next Ordinary Open Meeting.
- e. RCSA Policy takes precedence over Resolutions of either the Committee or Welfare Committee.

19. The Policy List

- a. The Secretary shall be responsible for keeping a record of Policy. This record shall be known as the Policy List.
- b. In the first Open Meeting following the election of a new Committee any Policy on the Policy List due to lapse in the forthcoming Year according to Article 18(b) may be proposed by the Committee to be renewed.
- c. The Policy List shall be available on the RCSA website.

Note: Open Meeting motions relating to the allocation of funds are not considered policy and expire at the conclusion of the Budget Cycle in which they are passed.

The policy of the RCSA has been separated into three-year cycles such that it is obvious when policy needs to be renewed. Within each cycle they are listed chronologically with the oldest policies first.
